Class History

In the summer of 1948, the eighth grades of the three North Brooks merged, to form what is now the Senior Class of '53. We soon became acquainted with each other and settled down to the enrichment of our lives.

With eagerness we entered our freshman year of high school. Our president was Ruth Foster, and Mr. Pendleton, our advisor. Our outside activities were few since this was our first year in high school.

Then we were sophomores. Entering with a little more confidence, we elected our class officers with Ruth Dellinger as president. Mr. Childers was our leader.

When we returned as juniors in the summer of '51, we were very aware of the responsibility placed upon our shoulders. Our president was Don Pendleton. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Heavner, we set to work. Among our most exciting activities was the presenting of the Jun-Play, "By Any Other Name." Our Junior-Senior Banquet was on April 4. In May came graduation. We helped with the commencement exercises by presenting the daisy chain to the Seniors. We were sorry to see our classmates leave but we were glad to be replacing them as Seniors.

Returning for our final year in July, 1952, under the guiding hand of Mrs. Parker, we were fully aware of the task ahead. Wanda Lee Houser was elected president, and we dignified Seniors went about our duties. We selected Gerald Turner and Patricia Spangler as our Mascots. The chief things accomplished were the class play, "Amazing Gracie," the publishing of the "Babbling Brook" and "Le Souvenir." The Junior-Senior is an event we shall always remember. It was wonderful to be honored in this way.

Our history as a class ends when we accept our diplomas and leave the halls of North Brook High. However, each individual will write his own history, by his deeds and actions, as he pursues his way down the road of life.

Kay Wehunt, Class Historian

'Twas many a year ago!

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of '53, of North Brook High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this is to be our Last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, hereby revoking any will, or wills, heretofore made by us.

We direct that all our just debts and goodtime expenses be paid and satisfied, after our departure. We, the Senior Class of '53, do hereby bequeath our numerous possessions.

I, Peggy Lingerfelt, leave my beauty to Jane Leonhardt.

I, Peggy Leatherman, leave my curling iron and hair pins to Susie Poston. Maybe she can use them to good advantage on Ann Beam.

I, Verlene Mosteller, leave my original ways to Velarie Ann Hoyle.

I, Clara Bell Houser, will to Nellie Davis, my shorthand book.

To Carlene Houser, I, Frankie Jean Godfrey, will my title, Friendliest Girl.

I, Betty King, leave my wit to Jamie Lee Powell.

I, Agnes Bess, will my popularity to Ann Beam.

I, Nelson Proctor, leave my love for athletics to Harold Craig.

I, Kay Wehunt, will to Nellie Jane Mitchem, my title, Best Sport.

I, Gracie Leatherman, will my long hair to Janice Bumgarner.

I, Alene Houser, will my artistic ability to anyone who loves to work for his friends.

I, Carl Thompson, will my job in the cafeteria to W. A. Wellmon.

I, Jo Ann Hoyle, will my dependability to Jeanette Leatherman.

I, Wayne Lingerfelt will to Carrol Bingham my title, Most Dignified.

I, Gene Canipe, will my popularity to Milton Houser.

I, Virginia Brackett, will my title, Cutest, to Jeanette Leatherman.

I, Ray Parker, will my better thoughts to the eleventh grade.

I, Earl Beam, will my old black hat to anyone man enough to wear it.

I, Jasper Gales, leave my horse and wagon to Dean Brackett; he may get to keep them longer than he has his Chevy.

I, Dorothy Walker, leave my arguing ability to Theda Heavner. She may need it.

I, Rebecca Baxter, will to Sue Auton my title, Most Likely to Succeed.

I, Marie Houser, leave my dignity to Ann Beam.

I, Janelle Woods, will to Carlean Houser my intellectual ability.

I, Don Pendleton, will to Milton Houser my intellectual ability.

I, Wanda Lee Houser, will to Nadean Houser my athletic ability.

I, Ruth Dellinger, will my title, Most Studious, to Carlene Houser.

I, Ann Brendle, will my title, Biggest Flirt, to Jane Leonhardt.

I, Shirley Wehunt, will my title, Most Lady Like, to Kay Brendle.

I, Jim Godfrey, will my title, Most Handsome, to Jim Houser.

I, Nora Warlick, will my title, Most Capable, to Kay Brendle.

We do hereby make, constitute, and appoint Mr. Rudisill our executor of this, our Last Will and Testament.
